

Resident Engineer

SCOPE OF WORK

We are now looking for driven and experienced RESIDENT ENGINEER with a genuine interest in CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIP AND QUALITY WITH passion for the manufacturing industry.

TASKS OF THE RESIDENT ENGINEER

Be the technical interface between Volvo relevant departments and customer

Ensure frequent communications with the customer to build up strong relationship, especially ensure good communications with developers and customer's project responsible

Build and maintain customer relationships

Appropriate and timely communication between the customer and Volvo

Provide the voice of the customer to the customers engineering team

On request of project team:

- Perform in feasibility studies
- Carrying out design changes of assemblies and parts
- Drive necessary changes to the OEM

Participation to internal appointments (team round, FMEA, etc.)

Schedule appointments between Volvo and customer

Support the creation of technical documentations

Perform data upload / download

Support release process into the customer data systems

REQUIRED SKILLS OF THE RESIDENT ENGINEER

- Degree in mechanical engineering, automotive engineering or equivalent
- min. 2 years of professional experience in the automotive business
- Good CAD knowledge with the CATIA V5 tool
- Ideally, knows the common release and data management tools of the OEM
- Good analytical skills and a conceptual and creative mindset
- High level of resilience, determination and assertiveness
- Strong communication skills.
- Good English knowledge in spoken and written.

Personal skills

We

look forward to seeing you from Aerospace / Automotive or similar industry. In your role as a Resident Engineer, you are expected to take your own initiative, be careful and analytical, and understand the importance of following processes. In your role, you will have contact with many different people, which requires you to be punctual, responsible and good at communicating. For those of you who want to work on developing the future in an exciting and fun project, this assignment is just right!

At TechROi Group, we offer flexible solutions as we have broad expertise in several different industries and professions. •

Our strength is that every business area has a pure business..Together, we are a strong team, focusing on total solutions, quality and satisfied customers.

We will process all applications and conduct interviews on an ongoing basis. The services may be added before the end date.

Send your resume to <mailto:future@techroi.com> with application reference CAD Engineer

Job Type: Permanent

Scope of employment: 100%

Admission: By agreement

Location: Gothenburg

Contact: Magnus Emanuelsson

<mailto:magnus.emmanuelsson@techroi.com>

Deadline: 2020-02-29